BURIAL AND MEMORIAL SITES INTERMENT RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

The following Plain English Statement is required by law (Local Government Cemetery Regulations 2010). It is an important document. Please keep it with the original interment right.

This statement describes the terms and conditions for buying interment and memorial (ashes site) rights at the Cemetery noted below. This form must be completed and a signed copy of this document must be received by Council before a grave or memorial can be used.

Name of the Interment Right Holder(s): (Up to two people may be named)

The person/people named above has/have the sole right (interment right) to decide and advise the Cemetery about who may be buried, have ashes placed or be memorialised in the following site.

Name of Cemetery

Please tick selection:

- I/We will accept the next available grave or memorial position in our preferred section.
- I/We or our funeral director will contact the Council to select a grave or memorial position.

Section (i.e. Catholic or General. This may be known at the time of arranging a funeral)

The path & site number will be confirmed by the Council on the interment right.

An interment right will be issued for this site. The interment right does not mean that the buyer owns the land.

The cost of the interment right is $..... (incl. GST)

The interment right is issued for99..... years.

The interment right starts on (Date)

The interment right expires on(Date)

The interment right will be issued to the interment right holder(s) by the cemetery after payment of the relevant fees. The interment right may be sent via your funeral director who will pass it on to the interment right holder.

The interment right cost does not cover other services such as grave digging, burial, chapel, funeral director, headstone or memorial expenses.

Burial and memorial licences are subject to the conditions noted in this statement, the Council's Operating Policy and any cemetery rules or laws in force during the term of the interment right.

Please note that the Council's Operating Policy, interment right conditions, policies and rules may change over time. Updated versions of the cemetery's Operating Policy are available from the Council or on their website.

INTERMENT RIGHT CONDITIONS

The following points are part of the interment right Conditions.

- Options for periodic payments (cash, credit card, and lay-by options) may be available for the purchase of a burial or memorial licence. Please check with the Council..
- An interment right may only be cancelled or transferred as per the Council's Operating Policy.
- An interment right may be renewed, transferred, extended or cancelled upon application to the cemetery, in accordance with the Council's Operating Policy.
- The rights granted to the applicant may be exercised upon the death or legal incapacity of the interment right holder by any one of the following people in descending order of entitlement:
 - 1st The executor or administrator of the applicant
 - 2nd A joint executor or administrator (with permission from all others) of the applicant
 - 3rd The legally married spouse of the applicant
 - 4th The domestic partner of the applicant
 - 5th The eldest living and legally capable child of the applicant
 - 6th The eldest living and legally capable grandchild of the applicant
 - 7th The eldest living and legally capable sibling of the applicant
 - 8th The eldest living and legally capable blood relative of the applicant
- An interment right may be extended by anyone at anytime in accordance with the Council's Operating Policy or any rules the cemetery has in force from time to time.
- The interment right holder is responsible for maintaining headstones and memorials in a safe and proper condition. This is not Council's responsibility.
- Under the Cemetery Regulations 2010, if it has been two years or more since the interment right for a site has expired, the Council may dispose of unclaimed headstones or memorials. Before disposing of a monument, the cemetery will attempt to contact the interment right holder for the site.
- If at the end of the interment right period the interment right is not renewed or extended, the Council may reuse the interment or memorial site.
- Cemeteries have specific requirements regarding the design of headstones and memorials which will require authorisation prior to installation. Some cemeteries are listed on the State Heritage Register and require headstones, monuments and alteration work to be approved by an appointed Heritage Advisor. This approval process may take time.

Please let the Council know if you change your address or contact details.
