Top of the Yorke Packed with Activities for October School Holidays

Families looking for things to do these October school holidays will find plenty of reasons to visit the Top of the Yorke, with a packed program of community events, markets, family activities, food, live music and sport across the region.

From Saturday 3 October through to Sunday 11 October, Port Broughton and surrounding communities will come alive with activities catering to families, visitors and locals.

The school holiday program gets underway on Saturday 3 October, with the Fisherman Bay Fun Day running from 8am to 11.30am, followed by a Little Bang Brewing Pop-Up at the Port Broughton Hotel from 12pm to 6pm. The Port Broughton Hotel will also host its Porty B Italian Feast that evening, with tickets required.

Sunday 4 October will offer a full day of activities, starting with Bottomless Brunch at the Port Broughton Hotel from 8am to 10am, followed by the Broughton Seaside Markets from 10am to 2pm and the Broughton Rubber Duck Race from 10am to 4pm. Families can then take part in a Kids Scavenger Hunt at the Port Broughton Hotel from 2pm to 5pm, before the day winds up with Sip & Sounds at the new Port Broughton business, Eight Bay from 6.30pm.

The following weekend will continue the holiday fun, with free Learn to Skate sessions at the Port Broughton Skate Park on Saturday 10 October from 10am to 12pm, followed by the free Skate Park Competition on Sunday 11 October from 11am. The competition is open to all abilities.

Sunday 11 October will also see the Thomas Plains Tennis Club celebrate 125 years at the former Thomas Plains School Site from 2pm to 5pm.

Regular activities will also continue throughout the holidays, including parkrun at Port Broughton every Saturday morning from 7:45am.

Mayor Leonie Kerley said the school holiday program was a great opportunity for families to explore the region and support local businesses and community groups.

"There is a fantastic range of activities happening across the Top of the Yorke these school holidays, with something for all ages and interests," Mayor Kerley said.

Media Release

“Whether you are looking for a family-friendly activity, a great meal, live music, markets, sport or simply an opportunity to get out and enjoy our coastal communities, there are plenty of reasons to make a day of it or stay for a few nights.

“These events are also a great reflection of the enthusiasm and effort of our local businesses, community groups and volunteers, who continue to create opportunities for our community and visitors to enjoy.”

With activities spread across more than a week, visitors are encouraged to plan ahead, check event details and booking requirements, and make the most of their time in the Top of the Yorke.
